NEWSLETTER #8

Waheguru Ji Ka Khalsa Waheguru Ji Ki Fateh.

I apologise once again in not sending Sangat regular newsletters. This has been mainly due to my ill-health and the fact a lot of administrative matters required implementation.

There have been some problems getting a permanent Jattha, but this is being sorted out. We have sponsored a temporary Jattha till Mid-March 2014, while we interview and appoint a permanent Jatha for 2014. Bhai Sukhdev Singh is already here, and his two colleagues will arrive early next week.

WE have a very good Jattha from Parklea Gurdwara (BhaimCaaranjit Singh Kiratpur Wale) who will be here on This Sunday 9Feb. They will perform from 11 AM to 12.30 PM. They are excellent and I would encourage everyone to come and listen to their Kirtan.

The upcoming programmes are as follows:

Sunday 2 March : Dr Devinder Singh Gill's family.

Sat 8 Mar. Private Wedding function

Sunday 16 March: Rajvir Singh Family

Sat 5 April : Private Wedding Function

Sunday 6 April : Rajwant Singh Family

Sat 12 April: Private Wedding Function

Sunday 13 April Gagandip Singh family

This year Baisakhi falls on 14 April (Monday). As usual our Gurdwara celebrates it on the following Sunday.

The Akhand Patth will start at 9 AM on Friday 18 April and the bhog will be on Sunday 19th April at 9 AM. This will be followed by various activities, the details of which will be announced soon. (This is also the Easter weekend and everyone should be free to attend all the 3 days of activities. This weekend will be the biggest day in Sikh calendar, and everyone should make it a point to keep it free to participate in the activities.

Please open our website: www.brisbanegurdwara.org.au regularly for the latest news, announcements, bookings etc. However if you do not have access to the internet, some information will be available in the Gurdwara newsletters.

PLEASE DO NOT GOOGLE BRISBANE GURDWARA AS IT TAKES TO OTHER SITES. Use the URL. I am in the process of contacting the various Sikh sites in Australia and overseas to add the Inala Gurdwara to their databases.

Upcoming events/programmes: These will now be posted on the website.

For those getting this newsletter for the first time, the previous newsletters are found on the website. The Sangat is humbly requested to pass this info to all their friends, relatives etc. who you think may not be receiving this newsletter. If they contact info@brisbanegurdwara.org.au , I will add their names to the email list
